World Identification Certificate.

" Circulation Books Open to All."

colorld.

HOUSE AND HOME ADVTS. (City-Seashore-Country) IN THE WORLD LAST SUNDAY: . . . 2,039 . . . Corresponding Sunday Last Year . . . 1,727

Saturday and Sunday === World's House and Home Days. NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JULY 5, 1893, PRICE ONE CENT.

2 O'CLOCK.

EIGHT PAGES.

Series of Bomb Outrages and No East Third street, the aged mother of cutting his throat and severing the ar-Clue to the Authors.

fortunately he escaped unhurt.

Six bombs were found in the doorway of the house occupied by a merchant named Lasch. These bombs were sufficiently powerful to have blown the building to pieces. Explosions occurred in several other parts of the city, but no damage of mo-Extra guards are patrolling the streets, and a strict watch is being kept on the public buildings.

TYPHUS BREAKS OUT AGAIN. Albert Mesper's the First Case Since notified and he was removed to the Reception Hospital.

This is the first case that has appeared in the neighborhood, and the inspectors are making a vigorous investigation of the premises where Mesner lived.

Dr. Doty, of the Bureau of Contagious Diseases, said this morning that this was the first case of typhus fever since une 24. the first case v. une 24.

Alfred E. Rigby, twenty-two years old, of 306 Henry street, was sent to North Brother Island this morning, suffering with small-pox.

SWINDLED A MULTITUDE.

A Chicago Sharper Who Didn't Arrive with a Steamboat.

of the fireworks from a steamboat on the received. lake. Four thousand people paid the money, and proceeded to the Casino pier.

Nignt's Dream' off. Will cable later." Tust outside the Exposition grounds, and means that the production of "A Midammer-

United States Marshal Whitehurst's Daly. Last Aim a Good One. TARPON SPRINGS, Fla., July

City Marshal Whitehurst was shot and He Wounds a Woman by a Reckless killed vesterday afternoon by Bird Stevenson, of Sapling Woods Village, while the officer was trying to arrest

Black Mr. White Knocked Out. GALVESTON, Tex., July 5 .- Monday night, at Hitchcock, fourteen miles from Galveston. hegro from Okianoma, fought to a finish for a purse of $500. White was knocked out in the twenty-first round. The fight was witnessed by several hundred prople, and about $8,000 changed hands on the result.

Nickel-in-the-Slot Machine Stolen. Thomas Farrell and George Warner, each thirty years old, were arrested last night

CAUGHT THE FLEEING COUPLE. SUICIDE IN CHRIST HOSPITAL. MOURNS HER LOCKS.

Jacob Guth and His Wife in Cus- Carl Hamburg Hangs Himself in

$2,900 Left of the $3,000 They Are Used the Bandages Which Had Accused of Stealing.

Inspector McLaughlin at Police Headquarters this morning received a tel-egram from Chief of Police L. D. Little, age, committed suicide this morning by of Elmira, N. Y., stating that Jacob hanging himself in the bathroom of Guth and his wife, Frances, who ran away on Saturday last with $3,000 be- About ten days ago Hamburg made an Guth's wife, had been captured in that teries of both wrists. He was found in

When Inspector McLaughlin was no-tified of the robbery on Monday, he im-blood.

Resident Officials Afraid to Seek Their Beds.

Their Beds.

Narrow Escape of Senor Logano,
President of the Couacil.

SEVILLE, July 5.—This city was in a state of constant alarm all last night, state of con

MAY DECIDE TO-DAY.

Manhattan's Executive Committee in Session.

The Executive Committee of the Man hattan Railway Company was in session at noon to-day, and it was believed that the meeting would result in the taking of some definite astion upon the Rapid Transit question.

five days more remain within which the Company must make known its decision upon the propositions sub-mitted by the Rapid Transit Commission, and as no other regular meeting

Albert Mesner's the First Case Since June 24.

Albert Mesner, twenty-seven years old, of 118 Clinton place, was removed to North Brother Island this morning, ill with typhus fever.

Last night he went to St. Vincent's Hospital, where he showed symptoms of the contagion, and the house surgeon immediately sent him to the isolated ward. The Health Department was then recolled and he was at the meeting to-day to make his report.

It was generally believed that the Railroad Company would make another resulting to the part was then fort to obtain better terms from the Railroad Company would make another effort to obtain better terms from the city than have yet been granted on the ground that it will be a very difficult matter in the present state of the financial market to raise the money that will be required to begin the work of construction.

HAS DALY DESERTED US?

Indications that the Popular Man ager Will Remain in England. Those who love Augustin Daly and his n London, if they wish to see him in New York again, for the indications are that he intends to shake Manhattan's dust from his CHICAGO, July 5.—An unknown man brewing for a long time, but they were announced last night that for fifteen stirred more vigorously than ever yesterday cents a head he would afford a fine view by a cable message which Frank Connelly

The message said simply, " . Midsummerwithout the Exposition gates.

The deluded multitude waited patiently until 11.39 o'clock, but neither the man who engineered the scheme nor the steamboat appeared.

When the crowd attempted to return they found the gates of the Exposition closed against them, and they had to pay fifty canis each before the bars were removed and they could seek their homes once more.

SHOT HIS MURDERER.

The members of the company now in London were not, it is true to have appeared in the play, but baily was to have put clever people, who are now under contract to him, in the production.

The cable message gave the gossips fresh tood for discussion, as they say that the manager has not renewed the lease of his theatre, which lease expires next year.

All probably degicated up in the success of the London venture. Things look rather bright over there just now, but the English metropolis is not easy to conquer, and the field is full of managers fully as capable as Daly.

YOUNG NEW YORKER IN TROUBLE Platel Shot.

MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., July 5,-Rober white the omeer was trying to arrest a disorderly sponge fisherman.

Whitehurst returned Stevenson's fire after he was wounded and with such effect that Stevenson will probably die.

Whitehurst died almost instantly after the with such and with such effect that Stevenson will probably die.

Whitehurst died almost instantly after recklessly shooting a revolver and morfiring at his murderer. oghan, on Summit Hill.

ognan, on Summit Hill.

Milligan is a member of a small excursion party spending a week in Mauch Chunk, and while his party was returning from a visit to the burning mine, near Summit Hill, he discharged several shots from his pistol, one of which hit the woman, who was by the road side.

Millett's Occupy tion Gone. CHICAGO, July 5 .- Frank Millett has ten dered his resignation as Director of Decorations. The work of coloring the buildings has been completed, and nothing remains tut the application of fresh point. He may be retained by the Exposition management to assist in the fete days.

Agnes O'Neill Prostrated by Her Encounter with the Clipper.

the Bathroom.

Been on His Throat and Wrists.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., July 5 .- Carl

DEFENDED HIS BOARDER.

Culhane Then Sailed In and Whipped

the Two Men.

A little family jar between the Calla-

A SURLY WOULD-BE SUICIDE.

John Donovan Would Not Reform

and Must Stand Trial.

was held in the Jefferson Market Police

Court this morning for trial on a charge

On the morning of June 17 Donovan, who had been drinking for several weeks, was found in his room with his throat cut. He admitted that he had attempted to take his life.

Donovan was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital, where he was discharged this morning.

morning.

Justice Grady was inclined to discharge him at first, but the latter was surly and would not promise to stop drinking, nor would he answer civilly, so the complaint of suicide against him was pressed.

SMALL-POX IN A BOYS' HOME.

Hise, aged thirty-five, and Lorris Gold-berg, aged eighteen, of Philadelphia, were carried out by the tide and drowned. Their bodies were swept out to sea by the ebb tide.

Railroad Bought for New Yorkers.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 5 .- The Darien

short Line Railroad, nineteen miles long.

with the Savannah, Florida and Western Hailway, was sold restorday under decree of the court, obtained by the Continental Trust Company of New York. It was bought by Mr. Lev-ruser, of New York, representing the Northern bondholders for $30,000. The road was bonded for $200,000.

from near Darien, Ga., to a near connection of attempted suicide.

John Donavan, a night watchman, aged lieved to be recovering.

Her Story of the Loss of Her Golden Tresses.

Capt. Schmittberger's Police Sure They Will Catch the Fellow.

Agnes O'Neill, the pretty girl whose golden hair was so ruthlessly cut off by an unknown a field in West New York, North Hudman in West Forcy-eighth street last night. has spent the greater part of the time since in weeping over her loss.

Hamburg was taken to Christ Hos-The shock she experienced on hearing the pital, where he remained and was besharp click of the sel-sors utterly unnerved her, and during the night she started up sev-This morning he asked permission to eral times in terror from dreams that the go into the bathroom. While there he tore the bandages from his throat and man was still pursuing her.

Miss O'Nelli, who is twenty years old, with wrists, and tying them together, hung her mother, rents the four-story red brick himself by fastening one end of the imhouse 120 West Forty-eighth street, and last provised rope to a water pipe.

He was dead when one of the atweek preparations were made to spend the Summer, according to their custom, at As-bury Park. Mrs. O'Ne'll started for that tendants discovered him hanging in the place on Saturday, her daughter intending to remain here a few days longer. According to friends living at 426 Fifth street, Brookthe colored girl who opened the door for an Evening World" reporter this morning Miss O'Neill left for Asbury Park at a very early hour to-day.

"She is too much upset to remain in the city any longer." the colored girl said, "and does not want to see any of her friends at present. I cannot way when she will come hans and the Culhanes, who live to- back; perhaps not until after her hair grows gether on the top floor of 292 West Hous- again." ton street, resulted in the arraigning in Capt. Schmittberger and, in fact, every ton street, resulted in the arraigning in the Jefferson Market Court to-day of Michael Culhane, the head of the family of that name, on a charge of assault.

James Barrett, a boarder in the Callahan family, was also concerned in the affair, and he exhibited in court a small wound on his ear, which he claims was inflicted by Culhane during the row.

All of the three men are 'longshoremen, and yesterday they got very full of patriotic beer, and when they met in front of 292 West Houston street last night Culhane accused Barrett of insulting Mrs. Culhane.

Callahan took his boarder's part, and Culhane pliched into them, and soon knocked Callahan out and then quickly disposed of Barrett.

Foliceman O'Neill, of the Charles street station, arrested all three, and in court to-day Culhane was held for examination.

CAMPERDOWN IN PORT.

The Battle-Ship That Bank the Victoria Arrives at Valetta.

Looking around she saw amn about 5 feet to connected with the West Forty-seventh Capt. Received which the West Forty-seventh Street Precinct are particularly snicus to cancerned in the Callahan took of the family dealers in description by which they hope torus in description by which they hope torus in description by which they hope torus in description by which they hope tor undescribed on the selestors. They have a description by which they hope torus in description by which they hope to run in description by which they bops torus in description by which they hope torus in description by which they bops the fellow wh

The Battle-Ship That Sank the Victoria Arrives at Valetta.

VALETTA, Maita, July 5.—The battle-ship Camperdown, which ran into and sank the battle-ship Victoria during the recent maneuvres of the British Mediterranean Squadron off Tripoli, Syria, arrived here to-day

She was escorted by the battle-ship Inserted the street.

Company is located when she heard the click of the shears.

Looking around she saw a man about 5 feet in locat

Squadron off Tripoli, Syria, arrived nero to-day

She was escorted by the battle-ship Innexible. The Camperdown is the temporary flagship of Rear-Admiral Markham, his own flagship, the Trafalgar, being laid up here for repairs.

Then she did scream, and with a vengeance. The first to respond was Forem an Gormley, of the hook and ladder company, who promptly gave class to the flying figure, before repairs.

Then she did scream, and with a vengeance of the hook and ladder company, who promptly gave class to the flying figure, before repairs.

not know which to run after, the man.

In less time than it takes to tell it a crowd of several dozen was flying along, but half way down Forty-seventh street the man disoppeared just as if the earth had opened and w which to run after, the woman or way down Forty-eventh street the man disoppeared just as if the carth had opened and a wallowed him.

His strange disappearance gives color to the idea that the tellow inust have worn a disguise which he removed while running. It is even possible that after getting unseen into some naliway he may have gone out into the street again and joined in the chase.

During all this time Miss O'Neill stood on Eighth avenue. She was so mortified that she did not know what she was doing. A crowd surrounded her and asked her all kinds of questions.

She was unwilling to give much explanation, however, and tried her best to get away. No policeman was then in sight, nor was anything heard of the occurrence by Capt. Schmittberger until saveral hours later.

Then he roceived a letter, which gave neither the name or address or the writer, but which detailed the occurrence. It described the man as being five feet ten and a hall inches tail, with a full blond beard. He was dressed in dark clothing, and the writer claimed to be able to identify him on sight.

The Captain instructed his ward detectives to go through the district and see I they could learn the victims name. They did so, and shortly before midnight located Mrs. O'Neill. Then in a nervous manner she repeated the story.

"I don't know how it all happened," she

SMALL-POX IN A BOYS' HOME.

All the Occupants Vaccinated and the Institution Furnigated.

A case of small-pox has been reported in the Home of the Homeless, on Grove street near York, Jersey City. The patient was a small boy. He has been taken to the Snake Hill pest house.

There are about fity chidren in the Home has been furnigated, and every precaution has been taken to prevent the disease from spreading.

DROWNED AT CAPE MAY.

Two Philadelphians Carried Out to get May. N. J., July 5.—While bathing yesierday afternoon near Cape May Point, two excursionists. H. W. Hise, aged thirty-five, and Lorris Gold-berg, aged eighteen, of Philadelphia, were carried out by the tide and drowned. Their bodies were swept out to see by the ebb tide.

STABBED IN THE AFFRAY. William Trimbil Had a Fight with

His Neighbor, Schell. Early to-day William Trimbil, twentytwo years old, who lives at One Hun-

while they were endeavoring to open a splication of fresh point. He may be related by the Exposition management to tailed by the Exposition management to assist in the fete usys.

Will Seek Dolomas in Court. The machine for casting dice on the Frankin street dock. The machine had teen stolen from Matthew Koch's saloon, 231 Vest street. Judge Meade, in the 10mbs Court this moraling, held the prisoners in $500 for trial.

The most delicious sods water in the city is drawn from Rixma's tiliverside Fountain. They had a dispute over some trivial matter.

Will Seek Dolomas in Court. Territe Haute, Ind., July 5.—C. H. Copeland, of Monrovia, Ind. and A. J. Woodman, of Duiuth, Minn., who were refused final time the was stated at his home by Dr. Bussell.Vill.E. Ala., July 5.—Deputy discounts as students this year at the School because as students the year at the School be olas avenue, got into a fight around the

IN BATTERY PARK.

How Long Will the Guardian of the Park Continue Asleep?

PANIC AT THE WORLD'S FAIR

Nine People Badly Injured in Crush on the "L" Platform.

Chicogo's Transit Facilities Too Small for the Fourth's Crowd.

station at the World's Fair Grounds the crush after the fireworks was greatest the elevated employees became alarmed at the size of the crowd gathered on the platform and stopped others from ascending the steps, telling them that it was not safe.

This precipitated a panic on the platform, and in the scramble at least 100 people were trampled upon. There were fifteen people sent to the hospital in ambulances when it was over. Nearly all of them had fainted, and nine of them were seriously injured.

The platform of his catboat, and all were taken 100 shore. A few that remained on the upturned boat were taken off by a naphtha launch, owned by Mr. Randall. The rescued people intend giving a gold medal to Mr. Powers. them were seriously injured.

The downtown district was never so hocked with humanity at such a late hour as it was last night. From 11 o'clock until after the day began to break the crowds thronged about the downtown terminals of the west and north side cable lines.

The cables ran all night. The big loads they carried seemed in no way to lessen the throngs. At 2 o'clock there were apparently as many people on the streets as at 11 o'clock.

ROBBED IN CITY HALL PARK. Hoboken Man Loses His Watch-

Witness Is Locked Up. George Bermann, of 168 Grand street Hoboken, was sleeping on a bench in City Hall Park about 6 o'clock this morning when two men went through his clothes and tooks away his silver watch. Frank Anderson, no home, saw the robbery and informed Park Policeman Dwyer. The men ran away, but Dwyer caught one of them.

He said his name was William Smith, twenty-three years old, a photographer, of 83 Bowery, and denied that he was near the complainant.

In the Tombs Court Judge Meade held Smith in $1,000 for the Grand Jury, and committed the witness Anderson o the House of Detention. caught one of them.

THE WATERS GIVE UP THEIR DEAD

Bodies of Three Unknown Men Await Identification. The body of an unknown man was found this morning in the river at the foot of West Thirty-fifth street. It was that of a man about forty-five years old, 5 feet 8 inches in height, with brown hair and mustache, and was dressed in a gray tweed suit, gray underwear and a gray tweed suit, gray underwear and a gray tweed suit, gray underwear and that of a man about forty-five years old, 5 feet 8 inches in height, with brown hair and mustache, and was dressed in a gray tweed suit, gray underwear and white shirt.

The badly decomposed body of a man was found this morning under the public bath at the Battery.

The body of an unknown man was found off South Brother Island last evening. It was taken to the Harlem Morgue.

If King George Has Abdicated, He Hean't Told It Widely.

LONDON, July 5.-A report cached this city from the United States to the effect that King George of Greece had abdicated, and that a republic had years. been proclaimed. The Greek Consul-General here was seen to-day in relation to the report. He said: "This is the to the report. He said: dred and Thirteenth street and St. Nich- first news I have received of the abdication of King George."

He laughed incredulously when the de-

and declared that the story was prepos-

Drowned in a Cistorn. SUMMIT, N. J., July 5 .- Teresa O'Brien. the six-year-old daughter of Patrick O'Brien fell into a cistern in the rear of her parents'

SAVED BY BROKER POWERS. He Rescues a Party from Their Capsized Yacht with Great Difficulty. RED BANK, N. J., July 5.-Harry L. Bowers, a Wall street broker, is coked upon as a hero to-day, and congratulations are pouring in upon him.

> Silver were enjoying a sail on the South shrewsbury yesterday afternoon and Shrewsbury yesterday afternoon and the yacht was capsized. All the passengers were thrown into the water. Bessie St. John, aged six, a daughter of a New York cottager, got under the sail, and her brother William, aged about eleven, was under the overturned yacht. Mr. Powers, who was sailing a small cat boat near by, anchored his boat and jumped overboard to rescue the people, most of whom were women and children.

His first act was to save Bessie St. John, which he did after great difficulty. With the assistance of the men Powers succeeded in getting the people on board of his catboat, and all were taken to shore.

THREE FATAL RUNAWAYS.

Tragedies of the Road in West Vir ginis, Illinois and Oregon.

MANNINGTON, W. Va., July 5 .- W. Turner, wife and four-months-old child were driving to Sherman Heights vesterday to attend a picnic. Their horse took fright and ran away, throwing Mrs. Turner and the child out of the carriage, and instantly killing them. Mr. Turner is seriously if not fatally injured. ELGIN. III., July 5 .- A runaway occurred west of this city yesterday at a denie. A carriage was run into contalning Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pease and child. The latter was instantly driven by M. F. Bradley ran away last night and upset a wagon, throwing Bradley, his wife and four children over a precipice forty feet high. Mrs. Brad-ley was killed and two children fatally injured. The others escaped with pain-ful bruises.

BURGLAR BROOKE'S PAL. John Lyon, Alias Leon, to Have a Hearing in Jersey City To-Day. John Leon, who gave his address as 216 Second avenue, New York, and who was arrested at Police Headquarters in see one of his pals who is known as Charles H. Brooke, will have a hearing past.

Supt. Smith expects a number of New York pawnbrokers to call at Police Headquarters this afternoon to identify the prisoners.

EX-SECRETARY KELLY DEAD. He Filled Cabinet Places Under Pierce and Buchanan.

WASHINGTON, July 5 -Moses Kelly ex-Secretary of the Interior, died in this city on Monday, aged seventy-four

Mr. Kelly was from New Hampshire. Mr. Kelly was from New Hampshire, and came to Washington during President Pierce's Administration.

During the last year of President Buchanan's term of office he was appointed Secretary of the Treasury to fill out the term of Secretary Jacob Thompson. For the past few years his health failed, and he lived in retirement.

Collided with an L Pillar. Fire Engine No. 16, of the Brookiyn Department, while on the way to a fire at 1 o'clos this morning collided with an elevated railroad pillsr at Fistbush and Fifth avenues. Foreman John Dooley was thrown from his seat and sustained a fracture of the leg.

Jeweller Brewing's Pocket Picked of $605 and Valuable Papers.

He Identifies One of the Thieves is the Rogues' Gallery.

able papers on a Third avenue open sur-

Mr. Breuing left his place of business at 8.45 to call on Sam. Stern & Co., the city dealers in jewelry and precious stones stration note. He got on the rear platform of the car at Fourteenth street.

Two young men, one a smooth faced,

Two young men, one a smooth faced, sandy complexioned fellow, also boarded the car and stood on either side of Mr. lifeuing. One of the two young fellows got off at Eighth street and the other at Houston. Mr. Breuing rode down to the Post-Office.

On leaving the car his thoughts recurred to the pocketbook, and upon puting his hand in his pocket and finding it gone, he nearly fainted from the shock. He was so affected that he stood motionless for a minute, and then started off excitedly for Stern & Co.'s, where he related the story of his loss.

One of the firm took him to the Oak street station-house, where he told the story over again, and was shown the Rogues' Gallery. He unhesitatingly picked out 1.865 as the likeness of the sandy young man whom he suspected had robbed him.

The precinct police could do nothing for the aimost distracted merchant, and he was sent to Inspector McLaughlin at Police Headquarters.

Mr. Breuing says he can identify both the young men who were with him on the car platform.

Mr. Breuing has the reputation of being an honest man, and made a living by washing disternant of the care platform.

Mr. Breuing has at ne time said to be worth a half million, but lost it in disastrous business speculations.

His father, a wealthy land owner in disastrous business speculations.

His father, a wealthy land owner in disastrous business speculations.

His father, a wealthy land owner in disastrous business speculations.

His father, a wealthy land owner in the care of the care o disastrous business speculations.

His father, a wealthy land owner is Germany, failed a few years ago, an Mr. Breuing paid all his father's creditors, a sum said to be about $250,000.

ALL THE WOUNDED RECOVERING. Coroner Kene Will Investigate the

Trolley Accident To-Day. Coroner Kene, of Brooklyn, was of ficially notified this morning of last night's acident on the trolley raffroad Jersey City, when he called there to at Third avenue and Sixty-fifth street, New Utrecht, in which Motorman Mc Hugh was killed and eight persons in jured.

To-day the Coroner will impanel a jury, who will visit and inspect the scene of the accident, and the inquest will be adjourned for two weeks.

In the mean time Coroner Kene will investigate the matter, and will endeavor to fix the blame on the persons who are responsible for it.

END OF THE ENCAMPMENT.

The Irish-American Affair in Newari Not Altogether a Furcess.

NEWARK, N. J., July 5 .- The Irish American encampment in Caledonian Park practically broke up this morning. Most of the soldiers departed for their names last night, while some of them re mained until this morning.

The encampment was not as success ful as the managers hoped it would be.

Tragedies in Brief. At Woodbins, Ky., whiskey and pistols at a pinc. John Marses, dames Francis and Demissmith killed. Joe: Mitchell wanted for their shoots ng.

Al Nolan, W. Va., drunken row. Andrew Far-ner shot and killed Wallace Deakins and wounder we would-be captors. He is still at large. At Nolan, W. Va., drunken row. Andrew Farmer shot and kined Wallace Deakins and wounded two would-be captors. He is still at large.

L. Alexander Trase, Patrick their, James Morris and J. A. Carkon drowned in Late Tahoe mear Carson, Nev., by the questing of a shall boat in which they were salling.

I. D. Hivers drawned on the beach of Sullvania lained, near Checie too, S. C., while trying La are the numer was gue beyond their depth.

EIGHT PAGES.

RIOTINGS MUST STOP,

Paris Now to Be Taken Firmly in Hand.

Troops Receive Strict Commands to Repress All Disorder.

Students No Longer Largely Responsible for the Mob Violence.

PARIS, July 5.—The body of Nuger, the young man who was killed during the fighting between the police and the students in the Latin Quarter, was sent to the home of his parents in Lyons to-day. The authorities feared that the rioters would take advantage of the shipment of the body to cause further trouble, and considerable secrecy was observed in transferring the body from the Morgue to the Lyons Railway sta-At an early hour this morning the offin containing the remains was placed in a hearse and taken to the station, the route followed being through unfrequented streets. The early risers who saw the hearse paid little attention to it beyond lifting their hats in accordance with the custom of saluting the dead that prevails here.

As the day wore on the rioters, hundreds of whom have no connection with the students, gathered in the vicinity of the markets and reopened the disturb-

Several conflicts occurred between the rioters on one side and the police and soldiers on the other. The crowd was composed of the riff-raff of the city, a majority being men out of work and men who never work. The fighting was quite

The trouble has now assumed such a serious aspect that the authorities, who Fourteenth street, was robbed of a at first imagined that it was due enocketbook containing $605 and valu- tirely to the effervescence of the more termined to restore order at any cost.

The disorderly element in all parts of the city took advantage of the der at 39 Maiden lane, and pay a maturing create disorder, and now, as a matter of body are responsible for the rioting.

WHISKEY FATAL EITHER WAY. ack of It Causes Suicide, Too Much

Brings Murder. CHARLESTON, S. C., July 5.-Butler Block (colored) committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself to a rafter. He was despondent on account of lack of whiskey. A white man named G. W. Irvin, suffering from the same complaint, at-tempted suicide by jumping into the river. He was rescued.

Joseph Brown (colored) was fatally stabbed by Truce Drayton. This was a case of too much whiskey.

HALF A SKULL PICKED UP.

Fisher's Ghastly Find in the East River at Harlem. Robert Fisher, of 2049 Third avenue, went tion-house this morning where he presented the Sergeant with hair of a human skull which he said he had fished out of the East liver at one Hundred and Tenth street. The ghastly thing was sent to the Morgus.

shot by the Unknown. Mark Goldberg, aged cleven, of 166 Rast One Hundred and Seventh street, lies in the Harlem Hospital in a critical condition from a bullet wound in his left breast. With two companions, Andrew Atlakson and Louis Moss, he was playing on Third avenue when he suddenly was struck by a bullet, which grazed Moss's arm. There is no track of the person who did the shooting, but the boys describe him as being dressed in a gray suit.

The Caravels Reach Lake Michigansteamer Hecia, with the Spanish caravels in tow, passed from Lake Huron into Lake Michigan at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. The run up Lake Huron was without lacident.

PRICE ONE CENT.